

How do I write the address correctly?

The address shall be written legibly.

The address shall state:

Full name of the recipient (in the order “surname, name, patronymic”) or name of the organisation (either short or full name)

Street name, house number, flat number

Name of the village/town/city

Name of the district, region, territory or republic

Name of the country

P.O. box, if any (e.g. “а/я 15”)

Postcode

How do I find out the postcode of the recipient in Russia?

How fast a postal item will be delivered also depends on the correct and accurate indication of the postcode. The postcode matches the code of the post office to which the postal address is assigned.

There are several ways to find the postcode:

- Enter the address in the post office search on the website.
- Use the mobile application. You can save postcodes under different names in the application.
